1		Violation of Mandatory Condition: “THE DEFENDANT SHALL NOT COMMIT ANOTHER FEDERAL, STATE, OR LOCAL CRIME.” On February 27, 2024, a Shiawassee County Sheriff’s Deputy witnessed a Pontiac G6, driven by SOLDAN, traveling westbound on M21, approaching the Meijer department store. The vehicle exceeded the speed limit, between 2-4 mph over (57-59 mph). The deputy witnessed the registration plate in the back of the vehicle had an expired tag on it. Upon approaching the vehicle, SOLDAN looked in the rearview mirror and pulled into the Meijer parking lot, traveled through the walking portion of the parking lot, and then exited on State Road without stopping at Meijer. The deputy briefly lost sight of SOLDAN’s vehicle and reacquired the vehicle turning south on Gould Street from M21. SOLDAN then turned east on Allendale and went 2-3 feet over the fog line on the south side of the road. The deputy activated his lights immediately. SOLDAN was observed looking through the rearview mirror, at which time the deputy also activated his siren. SOLDAN briefly tapped his brakes, upon approaching Frazier Street, then continued. The deputy switched his siren sounds and ensured his lights were still activated. At this time, SOLDAN turned south onto Abrey St. The deputy, again, checked to ensure his lights and sirens were activated, and even switched sounds. The deputy then observed SOLDAN looking in his rearview mirror and at the patrol car. SOLDAN then pointed out his window to the east and did so multiple times. SOLDAN continued until pointing to a residence, again, and pulling into a driveway on Melinda Avenue. Upon contacting SOLDAN, he was instructed to get out of the vehicle and that he was under arrest for fleeing and eluding. SOLDAN stated, “Why are you arresting me twice.” The deputy then opened the door and instructed SOLDAN to get out of the vehicle and that he was under arrest. SOLDAN did not get out of the vehicle causing the deputy to grab him by the arm to get him out of the vehicle. SOLDAN was then told to put his hands behind his back as he was under arrest for fleeing and eluding. SOLDAN repeatedly stated “Why are you arresting me” and the deputy continued telling him why. SOLDAN then pulled away from the deputy and started walking toward the house, saying, “no.” The deputy then grabbed SOLDAN’s left arm with both of his arms and executed a restraint technique. The deputy then applied one set of handcuffs on the left side of his wrist, as SOLDAN continued asking why he was under arrest. SOLDAN,

again, started to try and pull away back toward the door of the residence. The deputy then grabbed his other hand and was able to handcuff the second hand and place SOLDAN in the back of the patrol vehicle. Prior to placing SOLDAN in the vehicle, the deputy conducted a search of SOLDAN's person, and no contraband was found on his person.

An inventory search of the vehicle was conducted prior to it being towed. In the rear of the vehicle, a clear pipe used for methamphetamine was found. The pipe was consistent with drug paraphernalia. A black machete with a green sheath was also found. SOLDAN was read his Miranda Rights. After being read his Miranda Rights, SOLDAN continued to yell random things at the deputy.

According to the 66th Judicial District Court, Shiawassee County, MI, on May 23, 2024, under Case Number: 2024-24-0042-SI, SOLDAN pled guilty to Police Officer – Fleeing – Third Degree, Weapons – Dangerous Weapons – Using Self-Defense Spray Device, and Controlled Substance Use – Methamphetamine. On July 12, 2024, SOLDAN was sentenced to nine months custody, with 136 days credit for time served.

2      Violation of Mandatory Condition: “THE DEFENDANT SHALL NOT COMMIT ANOTHER FEDERAL, STATE, OR LOCAL CRIME.”

On November 22, 2023, law enforcement officers (LEO) were dispatched to the area of Island Road and Watson Road located in Clinton County, Michigan, in reference to a vehicle being stuck in someone's yard/field. Dispatch advised LEO that the caller resided at 5863 E. Island Road, Clinton County, Michigan, and had an intoxicated male (identified as SOLDAN) stuck in their yard with his car. When LEO arrived on scene, they noticed a vehicle well of the roadway and stuck in the mud in a field. The vehicle could be heard running but it did not appear that anyone was inside the vehicle.

The caller advised LEO that SOLDAN had shown up to their home and had already been drinking earlier in the day. The caller advised that while at the residence, he had consumed a fifth of Crown Royal Apple. When SOLDAN advised the occupants of the home that he was getting ready to drive home, they tried to stop him. SOLDAN became upset and attempted to leave anyway. According to the caller, SOLDAN backed the vehicle down the driveway toward the roadway. He then drove forward, driving into the muddy field and got stuck. The caller could hear SOLDAN revving the car engine to try to get it free.

After interviewing the caller, LEO approached the vehicle at the driver side window. The vehicle was running and in park. The window was rolled up and the door was locked. The driver of the vehicle was reclined back in his seat and appeared to be sleeping. LEO knocked loudly on the window to wake him up. Once awake, SOLDAN was asked to open the door.

LEO observed SOLDAN's eyes to be bloodshot and watery, his speech to be slurred, and the odor of intoxicants coming from his mouth. When SOLDAN was asked how he became stuck, he indicated he was not sure.

SOLDAN was asked to exit the vehicle. SOLDAN admitted to drinking "slightly" stating he had two to three bud light bottles and a couple of shots of Crown Royal Apple. The Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus and Walk and Turn sobriety tests were conducted. Because of SOLDAN's poor balance, the walk and turn test ended. For safety reasons and because SOLDAN's balance was so poor, the one leg stand test was not attempted. SOLDAN agreed to a preliminary breath test and the result was .15% BAC. At this point, SOLDAN was placed under arrest for Operating Under the Influence of Alcohol.

SOLDAN was asked and agreed to provide a blood test and was taken to Sparrow Hospital located in Clinton County, MI for said test before being taken to the Clinton County Jail.

According to 65A District Court, Clinton, County, MI, under Case No.: 2023-23-1196-SD, SOLDAN was charged with Operating While Intoxicated. On August 7, 2024, an order of Nolle Prosequi was entered.
